Dear Mr. Mooney,

Enclosed is a copy of a letter forwarded to me by someone in your office.

I get many like it.

It reminds me that if you have any notice relating to Case Open it would be good for me to have copies that I can enclose with what I write in response to questions asked of me and ordering our books.

Raphaela told me last evening that copiesw will be available in April.

I've included that in the letters I responded to today.

But if there is any kind of notice, that would look better and say more.

If you have none and are going to do one, may I suggest the publisher's preface with whatever you'd want to add?

Sincerely,

Harold
